

2026 PLUS X AWARD: DELABIE | DVS NAMED “2026 ARCHITECTURE INNOVATOR” IN THE “TECHNICAL BUILDING INNOVATION” CATEGORY

DELABIE | DVS has been recognised as a “2026 Architecture Innovator” in the “Technical Building Innovation” category at the PLUS X AWARDS.

The Award

The PLUS X AWARD is the world's largest innovation award for technology, sports and lifestyle. It recognises brands for the quality and innovation of their products. The jury is made up of independent experts who represent different sectors of activity. The PLUS X AWARD's approach is unique. The awards are an international reference for the best products and an undeniable sign of the quality of a brand.

In the “Technical Building Innovation” category the PLUS X AWARD recognises technical building solutions that stand out for their ability to combine design freedom, technical excellence and environmental responsibility. The winning companies blend technology, design, vision, creativity and a sense of responsibility, while addressing the challenges faced by the sector.

The Company

A 100% family-owned French company founded in 1928, DELABIE | DVS is now the European leader in tapware and sanitary equipment for public and commercial facilities. Driven by a strong culture of innovation, the company places Research & Development at the heart of its strategy through the development of high-performance solutions, filing patents and strict adherence to international standards. Eco-design is an integral part of the company's DNA. DELABIE | DVS products combine design with water and energy savings, while ensuring ease of installation and maintenance. This holistic approach enables the company to provide long-term support to professionals in addressing health, environmental, and economic challenges.

A long-standing partner to the commercial and healthcare sectors, DELABIE | DVS offers a comprehensive range of products structured around: taps for public spaces, solutions for hospitals and care homes, accessibility and hygienic accessories, stainless steel sanitary ware, and specialist water controls. This diversity enables the company to meet the needs of every project with precision.

New for 2026

In 2025, DELABIE reached a major milestone in its development with the acquisition of KWC Professional. This strategic move significantly strengthens its position as a European leader and creates a leading manufacturing group with a solid presence across Europe.
